Subject: National Volunteer Week is Coming — Thank You For Being Part of It

National Volunteer Week is right around the corner, and we wanted to reach out ahead of time to say how grateful we are for you.

Your willingness to give your time means more than words can fully express. Because of your support, [Nonprofit Name] can [briefly describe impact—serve our community, advance our mission, support those in need].

Throughout National Volunteer Week, we'll be celebrating the incredible role volunteers play in our work—and that celebration starts now. We hope you'll take pride in knowing the difference you make every day.

Thank you for being part of our community and for everything you do to help us move our mission forward. We're so glad to have you with us.

With appreciation,

Subject: Thank You For Making a Difference This National Volunteer Week

Dear [Volunteer Name],

Happy National Volunteer Week!

We want to take a moment to say thank you for everything you do. Your time, energy, and commitment make a real difference for our mission and the community we serve. Because of volunteers like you, we're able to [briefly mention impact].

Whether you've helped behind the scenes or on the front lines, your contributions truly matter.

Please know how valued and appreciated you are. We couldn't do this work without you.

With gratitude,
